Report to the KPC Session

June 8, 2018

The KPC Christian Education Scholarship Fund Committee has received applications and made awards to four KPC member families. These families collectively have 7 children/young adults who will benefit from these awards for their Christian education.

The families include:

One attending Regent University

Three that will attend Norfolk Christian School

Two that will attend Oaktree Academy

One that will attend Mount Pleasant Christian School

$7,500 was generously given by congregation members and awarded to these families.

Attached are the thank you notes that we have received in response to these awards:

We are blessing to be part of this tremendous ministry of our church that encourages and supports Biblically based education!

Christian Education Scholarship Committee,

Max Lyons, Chairman
